

PLAYWORK and the Early Years Foundation Stage

A training day for Out of School settings about the EYFS

Trainers: Karen Benjamin and Ali Wood

The EYFS is the new regulatory and quality framework for the provision of learning, development and care for children between birth and five. This training will help build the confidence of participants in understanding how playwork settings can meet the requirements of the EYFS and provide the relevant evidence for Ofsted. This training is about children getting the very best quality of experience in out of school settings to help them develop and fulfil their potential.

This training is suitable for all practitioners working in Out of School Clubs.

The day will cover:

- The four main themes and principles of the EYFS
- How the playwork principles support them
- How to liaise with other professionals
- How observations and reflective playwork practice provide evidence

This training day is free* to all practitioners working in Out of School Clubs in Gloucestershire!#

The days training will run from 9.30am - 2.30pm and include lunch.
